REFLECT | 1 CORINTHIANS 9:19-27

Based on Paul’s explanation, what does it mean to “be all things to all people”? What does Paul not mean? How can “being all things to all people” provide an opportunity for sharing the Gospel? Conversely, how can “being all things to all people” potentially make you complacent in sharing the Gospel? How do you fight against this temptation? How do you share or intentionally display the Gospel in your relationships? Could you improve in your intentionality? How does the second half of the passage (vv. 24-27) help to ensure faithful living that promotes faithful Gospel sharing? What is the danger if we do not take the spiritual discipline of our bodies seriously? How do you “buffet” your body into submission? What sort of spiritual disciplines do you consistently practice?

MEMORIZE | 1 TIMOTHY 2:1-6

“First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for all people, for kings and all who are in high positions, that we may lead a peaceful and quiet life, Godly and dignified in every way. This is good, and it is pleasing in the sight of God our Savior, who desires all people to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God, and there is one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus, who gave Himself as a ransom for all, which is the testimony given at the proper time.”

STUDY | 1 CORINTHIANS 5:6-13

From this passage, what principals can we learn about how serious we should take each other’s holiness as believers? How are we to understand verse 10? How does that verse relate to the passage in 1 Corinthians 9? Knowing we have the only message of hope, how should that inform the way we view unbelievers? Should we view them with contempt or compassion?
