

Anchoring your soul every day

Lies Women Believe

We know it can be so hard to find time each day to take care of your relationship with the Lord. We want to make it easier for you, if we can. We suggest taking one of these thoughts at a time, or even just do part of one, when you can. We hope this will help you experience the hope of your relationship with Jesus as your soul's anchor every day.

- ❖ Read Psalm 36. The first four verses talk about those who reject God as their Savior. How does what David writes in the following verses contrast with this?

What does this tell you about God's love for you?

- ❖ Read Colossians 3:1-4. How does this passage help explain your true identity, if you are a Christ-follower?

How can you remind yourself of this important truth throughout the busyness and challenges of your day?

- ❖ Read Ephesians 3:14-21. How might the truth of God's amazing love for you give you a solid purpose for your life?

How does knowing your ultimate future help you in your day-to-day, regardless of what you're facing right now?

Do you have the sort of relationship with Jesus that brings you into this loving relationship with God, gives you great value and a purpose for all that you do? If you do, take time to thank God in prayer for who you are in Him and for all that means for you.

If not, consider what is holding you back from the Lord's free offer of salvation and membership into His family for you. Is there someone you know who is a Christ-follower that you can talk to about this?
