About the Conference

The Network of Biblical Storytellers, Int'l. (NBSI) annual conference, the FESTIVAL GATHERING OF BIBLICAL STORYTELLING, is an openly welcoming, ecumenical event that has celebrated the Bible as story for over 38 years. It is packed with dynamic workshops, networking, thought-provoking keynotes, inspiring worship built around the Bible's stories and almost non-stop opportunities to tell and hear Bible stories.

Beginners, as well as pastors, storytellers, laity and Christian educators, will find opportunities for enlivening conversation and acquiring new storytelling skills for education and ministry. You will receive a refreshing awareness of the Bible as story, plus new storytelling ideas for worship, Sunday School, Bible study and small group leadership. Expect joyful interaction with other creative souls from across the nation and the world!

Speaker

The Rev. Cynthia Park, PhD, LPC is a Hebrew scholar, licensed therapist, and Episcopal priest working in parish ministry in Northeast Georgia. As a therapist, she employs cognitive behaviorism to help individuals change behavior patterns by changing their thought processes.

She completed her PhD in Semitic languages and literature. The focus of her dissertation research was the contribution of religious rituals to preserving Judaism during the Babylonian Exile. Her ongoing research focuses on the post-exilic book of Ruth, in particular the blessing scene in the final chapter.

Dr. Park has served on the NBSI Board of Directors and participates in the NBSI Scholars' Seminar.

At the heart of her research and practice is her love for the story of God and the countless ways that our engagement with this sacred story continues to shape our world.
