Nicholson Elected to Board of Mississippi Bankers Association

JACKSON - Chuck Nicholson of Brandon has been elected to a three-year term on the Board of Directors of the Mississippi Bankers Association (MBA).

Nicholson will hold an at-large position on the governing board of the statewide trade association, whose members include banks and savings institutions operating in Mississippi. Currently, MBA members hold more than 95 percent of bank deposits in the state.

Nicholson is president and chief executive officer of Community Bancshares of Mississippi, the parent company of Community Bank, which has offices in Mississippi, Alabama, Florida and Tennessee. He has 38 years of banking experience, the last 20 years with Community Bank. He earned a bachelors degree in business from the University of Mississippi and is a graduate of the Graduate School of Banking at LSU. Additionally, he holds several designations from the American Institute of Banking. Among his extensive involvement in the MBA, Nicholson currently serves as chairman of MissBankPAC, the association's political action committee. He is a past chairman of Board of Trustees of the MBA's Mississippi School of Banking, and he serves on the MBA Legislative Committee. Nationally, he represents Mississippi on the Government Relations Council of the American Bankers Association.

Nicholson's extensive civic involvement includes current service on the boards of the Methodist Children's Home of Mississippi, the Mississippi Economic Council, and Community Foundation of Mississippi. He has served in leadership positions with numerous other church, school and service organizations.

Nicholson and his wife Lisa have two daughters and three grandchildren.
