

Westminster Presbyterian Church
Amarillo, Texas

Title: Director of Youth Ministry

Description:

The Director of Youth Ministry helps Westminster Presbyterian Church fulfill its purpose to make disciples of Jesus who make disciples, especially as it relates to high school and middle school students. WPC is uniquely situated in a residential neighborhood, next to a park, and across the street from a large middle school, and the Director should expect to interact regularly with students on and off campus.

Qualifications:

- Exhibits an active faith in Christ with regular participation in a congregation
- Passion for ministering to and with teens, especially among un-churched and de-churched
- Track record of effective teaching and interaction with students and adults
- Exhibits a strong desire to work on and contribute to a healthy team ministry environment
- Affirmation of ECO Mission, Core Values, and Essential Tenets

Responsibilities:

- Disciple students and volunteers, and integrate youth into the life of the church
- Develop ministry programs and budget with the Youth & Family Committee
- Serve as primary teacher for Sunday school and separate middle school and high school Youth Groups
- Develop strong, Christ-centered relationships with youth and families
- Coordinate periodic events (e.g. Ski Trips) with area ECO churches
- Explore options for After-School Program with Austin Middle School
- Participate in contact work with current and potential youth
- Plan and develop summer events to engage students in yearlong discipleship and community-building

Salary: Commensurate with Experience

Members: 450
