

Tuesday Morning Prayer

Philippians 1:18-21

April 14, 2015

18 What then? Only that in every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is proclaimed, and in that I rejoice. Yes, and I will rejoice,

- Pray that Colonial Heights will continue to be a church where the Gospel is boldly proclaimed.
- Give thanks that CHBC has been a beacon of Gospel truth, and that it will continue to be so.
- Ask God to open up new avenues for you, personally, and for CHBC to proclaim Christ and His Gospel.

19 for I know that through your prayers and the help of the Spirit of Jesus Christ this will turn out for my deliverance,

- Remember the power of prayer, that through these prayers and the help of the Spirit, God will accomplish great things.
- Just as Paul was praying for deliverance from the bondage of a physical prison, pray for those you know who are in spiritual bondage.
- Pray the bondage of sin and shame will be broken by the work of the Spirit in many lives within our community as we share the Gospel in various ways.
- Pray specifically for the marriages in the Body of Christ at CHBC that are struggling.

20 as it is my eager expectation and hope that I will not be at all ashamed, but that with full courage now as always Christ will be honored in my body, whether by life or by death.

- Pray the members of Colonial Heights will have courage and boldness to live their lives in glad submission to Jesus Christ and proclaiming the Gospel in all contexts.
- Pray our lives will honor Christ by how we live, love, forgive, and extend grace.

21 For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

- Pray we will allow the very life of Christ to direct our steps as we follow the prompting of the Holy Spirit.
- Pray for a deeper intimacy with God that will allow us to hear clearly from Him.
