

Tuesday Morning Prayer

Philippians 1:11-15

April 7, 2015

11 (so that you may be) filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.

- Pray for yourself and for the members of Colonial Heights to pursue deeper intimacy with Christ that will result in a greater filling of the fruit of righteousness.
- Pray that as this fruit is displayed in and through our lives, that God will be glorified and praised everywhere we go.

12 I want you to know, brothers, that what has happened to me has really served to advance the gospel, 13 so that it has become known throughout the whole imperial guard and to all the rest that my imprisonment is for Christ.

- Pray as you face difficulties and trials in your life, that these will serve as opportunities for you to display the grace and power of the gospel at work.
- Pray the gospel will advance through the struggles your friends, family, or co-workers are facing.
- Ask God to reveal to you what part you may play in advancing the gospel by meeting the needs of others who are hurting.

14 And most of the brothers, having become confident in the Lord by my imprisonment, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

- Pray for personal boldness to become more intentional about sharing the gospel with others.
- Ask God to stir the hearts of our membership to share the gospel freely with boldness.
- Pray God will bring people across our paths this week that we can show the love of Christ and ultimately share the good news of the Gospel with them.
- Pray hearts will be receptive to the Gospel message and that people will put their faith in Christ.
