FRESH LIKE SPRING

P. Dishman, Prayer Ministries

I must confess that when unexpectedly confronted with generating an April prayer calendar in mid-March, I felt less like April, and more like the chilly sodden residue of bleak midwinter. Behold, good news! In reviewing April calendars from days of yore, I found a title from 2005 that appealed: “Fresh Like Spring.” And the daily meditations were perfect, requiring only slight adjustment. I like to start fresh each time, but this time, time did not permit. And that’s okay. Spring’s about gentleness, right? Including being gentle with oneself. So I took April 2005 and brought it forward ten years. To me, weary from winter but unready for spring, this was grace unlooked for, and good, good medicine for my soul. It was as if my long-ago self was reaching out a hand of fellowship, comfort, and practical help.

By the way, the Chinese elm gracing my back yard has donned her dress of spring green. She looks enchanting. However, her greening did reveal some dead places, major enough to require the attention of a professional arborist, if that’s the right word. He’s come to love her like I do, so that’s good. He did a great job of tidying her up, restoring her equanimity, and mine.

Speaking of love, and spring, and other beautiful things, here is a favorite passage from Song of Solomon:

“Arise, my darling, my beautiful one, and come along. For behold, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone. The flowers have already appeared in the land; the time has arrived for pruning the vines, and the voice of the turtledove has been heard in our land. The fig tree has ripened its figs, and the vines in blossom have given forth their fragrance. Arise, my darling, my beautiful one, and come along.”

Amen.
