

2019 Spring Breaktacular

Second Saturday Bird Walk

Saturday, March 9, 8am

Included in general admission and free for Heard Museum Members. Beginning and intermediate birders will learn bird spotting and ID techniques. See website for more info.

Owl Prowl

Saturday, March 9, 6pm

$16/member, $19/non-member

See a live owl presentation and then stay for a guided night hike on our sanctuary trails. Preregistration required.

Mini-Camps

Each mini-camp explores a different topic and includes indoor activities and time outside exploring our 289 acre sanctuary. Preregistration required. Participants should dress for the weather and wear closed-toe shoes suitable for walking on uneven gravel. Time: 9:30 A.M.—12 P.M. Tuition per mini-camp: $18/member*; $22/non-member

Tuesday, March 12 – Keeper Jr.

- 3rd – 9th graders
- Learn about what it takes to care for the museum's animal ambassadors. See what happens behind-the-scenes and meet some of our animal ambassadors in person. You will also get to help prepare food and/or enrichment items for some of our educational animals – just like our animal care staff does.

Wednesday, March 13 – Family Birding 101

- Kindergarten and up (children may attend with or without an adult)
- Bring your family and get started on one of the world's most popular hobbies. This mini-camp will help you learn about where and what to look for to identify birds, how to use identification guide books, and give you a quick start on using binoculars. Then, try out your new skills on a bird walk through our sanctuary.

Thursday, March 14 – Flower Power

- Kindergarten – 6th grade
- Flowers are more than pretty. Learn about the importance of flowers to local wildlife including butterflies to birds. Explore the sanctuary to see what flowers are blooming. Make a seed ball to take home and grow your own flower.
