

Fort Worth Zoo Photography Policy

The Fort Worth Zoological Association encourages visitors to take personal video or still photographs while enjoying their visit at the Fort Worth Zoo. All images and videos taken by guests, patrons, employees and volunteers are allowed free of charge so long as the images and videos are used for a personal, noncommercial purpose. All photographs should be taken from designated visitor viewing areas. The Fort Worth Zoological Association has the right, in its sole discretion, to withhold or withdraw consent to photograph and video or to reproduce photographs or video of Fort Worth Zoo and related property, which includes zoo exhibits, animals, and buildings.

By entering the Fort Worth Zoo, all guests, patrons, employees and volunteers agree that photographs and videos of animals and other property at the Fort Worth Zoo may not be used for commercial profit (i.e., financial gain), for publicity, or for any other purpose that commercially or publicly exploits the photos and videos, including posting the images on the Internet.

All trademarks, service marks, logos, images, and facilities of the Fort Worth Zoo are the sole property of The Fort Worth Zoological Association and may not be used, reproduced, displayed or distributed without the written consent of The Fort Worth Zoological Association.

If you would like to take photos/film/video at the Fort Worth Zoo for a commercial purpose, you may submit a request in writing to The Fort Worth Zoological Association at least two weeks prior to the date of the intended photo/film/video shoot. Please contact the Fort Worth Zoo at (817) 759-7360 for more information on obtaining permission for commercial filming.
