

MOLA Scavenger Hunt

Outdoor exhibits:

1. Visit the saltwater crocodile exhibit. How many eggs are in a clutch?

Circle the correct answer: A. 10 to 15 B. 30 to 50 C. 60 to 80

2. In the exhibit next to the entrance of MOLA, you will find the gharials. They cannot high walk like other crocodilians. How do they move around on land? _____

Indoor exhibits:

1. Not far down the path inside MOLA, you'll find our poison dart frogs. Is the following statement true or false? Indigenous, or local people, have used the frogs' toxic secretion to coat the tips of blow gun darts when hunting. _____

2. Find the king cobra exhibit across from the insect room. Fill in the blank: The venom of the king cobra is extremely toxic and a single strike can inject enough venom to kill an _____.

3. Haitian cockroaches are not considered pests, but instead beneficial insects. Why is this?

4. Name two of your favorite species in the Flooded Forest region of MOLA (the tanks just after the insect room).
A. _____ B. _____

5. In the Montane Gallery you will find the Armenian viper. How does this species' venom help scientists?

Outdoor exhibits:

1. Golden-headed lion tamarins can be found in the small outdoor exhibit area near the center of MOLA. What is the full size of this species? A. 6 inches B. 10 inches C. 12 inches

Indoor exhibits and Komodo dragons:

1. Once you head back inside, venture farther into MOLA and you will find the Egyptian tortoise. How many eggs does a female lay in the spring? _____

2. Last, but definitely not least, is our Komodo dragon exhibit. With their forked tongue, how far away can this animal smell a dead animal? A. 500 feet B. 2 miles C. More than 5 miles

