The Student's course selection will determine the requirement that is fulfilled. (ENGL 1065 will only count for free elective credit.)

The Student's course selection will determine the requirement that is fulfilled. (ECON 2010, GEOW 1030, and HPER 1570 do not count as a Social/Behavioral Science.)
⁴ Because our English degree programs only require 4 hours of Natural Science, the 4 additional hours will count as free elective hours.
⁵ Because we only have a total of 6 hours of lower division literature electives, 3 of the 9 hours that are a part of this A.A. degree would count as free electives.
