

Frank Lopez is Senior Vice President and Chief Human Resources Officer for Ryder System, Inc., a FORTUNE 500® global commercial fleet management and supply chain solutions company. As a member of Ryder's executive leadership team, Mr. Lopez is responsible for leading Ryder's global Human Resources function, which includes talent management and succession planning, talent acquisition, compensation and benefits, employee engagement and labor relations. Mr. Lopez has a strong record of building high performing teams and partnering with business leaders to develop talent strategies that drive business success in rapidly changing environments.

Mr. Lopez joined Ryder in 2002 as Senior Legal Counsel handling labor & employment law. Since then, he has held a number of positions of increasing responsibility, including Assistant General Counsel, Group Director of HR and Labor Relations and Vice President of HR. Prior to joining Ryder, he spent four years as an Attorney with the national law firm of Fisher & Phillips LLP.

Mr. Lopez has a Bachelor's in Political Science from Florida International University and a Juris Doctor degree from Emory University School of Law.