WELCOME Please sign the friendship register at this time and pass it down the row, then return it to its original position, noting the names of those worshipping with you. At the conclusion of the service, take time to greet one another in the name of Christ.

*CALL TO WORSHIP

based on Psalm 108:1-4

Leader: Our hearts are ready, O Lord, our hearts are ready!

People: We will sing and make melody! We will awaken the dawn!

Leader: We will give thanks to you, O Lord, among the peoples,
We will sing praises to you among the nations.

People: For your steadfast love is great above the heavens,

All: and your faithfulness reaches to the clouds.

*HYMN OF PRAISE

(stanzas 1, 2, 4, and 5)

Hymn 23

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

(silent confession...) Righteous Father, we who own more than we use, proclaim more than we experience, and request more than we need, come asking your forgiveness. We seek your salvation, then act like we save ourselves. We beg your forgiveness, then repeat our errors. We experience your grace, then act defeated. We rely on your power, but only in hard times. We have become confused and misguided. Forgive our every defection. Bring us to an unbroken commitment and a steady trust, through Jesus Christ, who is the way of hope, the truth of God, and the life of love, now and always. Amen.

ANTHEM

How Great Thou Art

Swedish Folk Song

The Sanctuary Choir

adapt. by Stuart K. Hine, arr. Dan Forrest

O Lord my God, when I in awesome wonder consider all the worlds Thy hands have made,
I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder, Thy power throughout the universe displayed.

Then sings my soul, my Savior God, to Thee, how great Thou art!

When through the woods and forest glades I wander and hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees;
When I look down from lofty mountain grandeur, and hear the brook, and feel the gentle breeze.

And when I think that God, His Son not sparing, sent Him to die, I scarce can take it in;
That on the cross, my burden gladly bearing, He bled and died to take away my sin.

When Christ shall come with shout of acclamation and take me home, what joy shall fill my heart!

Then I shall bow in humble adoration, and there proclaim, "My God, how great Thou art!"

Then sings my soul, my Savior God, to Thee, how great Thou art!

OFFERTORY

One Faith, One Hope, One Lord

Craig Courtney

The Sanctuary Choir

Refrain: One faith, one hope, one Lord, one church for which He died.

One voice, one song, we lift in praise to Him who was and is and shall be evermore.

There is one body, one Spirit, as you were called to one hope.

One Lord, baptism, and faith, one God and Father of all,

Who is in you all. Refrain.

Though we be many people, diverse with various gifts,

We are given to each other for the unity of faith,

That we grow in the knowledge of the Son of God,

In the fullness of Christ. Refrain.

*DOXOLOGY

Praise God from Whom All Blessings Flow

Hymn 34

*PRAYER OF THE PEOPLE AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father who art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

ON GRATITUDE | Thomas Merton, Thoughts in Solitude

“Gratitude is more than a mental exercise, more than a formula of words. We cannot be satisfied to make a mental note of things which God has done for us and then perfunctorily thank Him for favors received.

To be grateful is to recognize the love of God in everything He has given us—and He has given us everything. Every breath we draw is a gift of His love, every moment of existence is grace, for it brings with us immense graces from Him. Gratitude therefore takes nothing for granted, is never unresponsive, is constantly awakening to new wonder, and to praise of the goodness of God. For the grateful person knows that God is good, not by hearsay but by experience. And that is what makes all the difference... Gratitude is therefore the heart of the Christian life.”
